WHO IS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL FARMER IN THIS COMMUNITY?

HOW DOES HE DO IT?
READ ON AND LEARN

He doesn't do it by using the ancient methods of our fathers and grandfathers. Those methods are too slow for modern farming. There is too much manual labor for a small income.

Successful farming today is accomplished through the use of modern machinery, modern tools and scientific methods of cultivation.

We have the best tools—all modern and of the best—and we will be glad to show them to you and how to use them to the best advantage.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 28

SOME MISSIONARY TEACHINGS OF THE PROPHETS

LESSON TEXT—Jon. 4[1-3; Zeph. 3:9, 4:15-21; Micah 4:1-4; Zeph. 3:9.

GOLDEN TEXT—"The Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising."—Isa. 60:3.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of Jonah.

JUNIOR TOPIC—God's Love for All Nations.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Missionary Obligations.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Missionary Messages of the Prophets.

Perhaps the best way to teach this lesson will be to note the message of the individual prophets.

I. The Message of Isaiah (Isa. 60:2-3).

1. Its Central Fact (v. 1). Israel's light, her Redeemer, has come. The primary meaning of this is not the incarnation of the Redeemer, but His manifestation in glory and power as He comes back to this earth to reign as Israel's King. This glorious fact is presented under the figure of a bright sunrising. It will be a glorious morning without clouds dawning upon a dark world.

2. The Ringing Summons (v. 1). Messiah himself calls Israel to arouse herself from her long sleep of indifference and shine forth in the glory of her glorious king.

3. The Darkened Earth (v. 2). In spite of all the progress of the arts and sciences spiritual darkness—blindness touching spiritual things—has settled down upon the earth. It will be peculiarly gross in the last days. It can only be dispelled by the glorious appearing of the Lord.

4. The Blessed Result (v. 3). The Gentile nation shall come into the light, being attracted to Zion by the appearing of the Lord. In the midst of such darkness the sudden appearing of the light shall attract the nations and draw them to Jerusalem.

II. The Message of Jonah (Jonah 4:10, 11).

Jonah was commanded by the Lord to go to the wicked city Nineveh and proclaim its destruction in forty days. He started in the opposite direction in order to escape this unpleasant task. A storm came up and the superstitious sailors threw him overboard. He was swallowed by a great fish and after three days and nights was cast upon the shore. Having learned the needed lesson he went to Nineveh and preached with such earnestness that the whole city repented. The mercy shown by the Lord in sparing this wicked city so angered Jonah that he went out disgusted and constructed a shelter where he could see whether God would really destroy Nineveh. To protect the prophet, God made a gourd to quickly spring up and throw a shade over him. When the gourd died and left Jonah exposed to the burning sun he prayed for death. The particular message of Jonah is that God is great in mercy to all the nations when they penitently turn unto Him from their sins.

III. The Message of Micah (Micah 4:1-5).

In this message the prophet portrays the blessings of the Messiah's kingdom in the last days. Three things are predicted:

1. The Supremacy of His Kingdom (v. 1). It shall be exalted above all the kingdoms of the earth. The glory shall attract the people from afar.

2. The Extent of It (v. 2). Many nations shall come with the urgent request that others accompany them. The kingdom of Messiah shall be universal, it shall extend from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth.

3. It Shall Bring Peace (v. 3). Enmity will then be taken from men's hearts and they will love each other. When their hearts are changed they will no longer wage war against each other, they will even destroy their implements of warfare. War will continue till men's hearts are regenerated. The way to get war to cease is to get men to love Jesus Christ.

IV. The Message of Zephaniah (Zeph. 3:9).

Zephaniah declares that following the judgment upon the nations God will turn the people from their impure speech so that they may call upon Him. He declares that God's will is that all nations turn from their sinful conversation and call upon Him. He desires that all nations should come unto Him.

Christianity.

In order to abolish Christianity the one thing essential is to get rid of Sunday.—George Holyoake.

To Appreciate Institutions.

Fairly to appreciate institutions we must not hold them up against the light that blazes in Utopia.—Viscount Morley.

Mammon.

Mammon has enriched his thousands, and has damned his ten thousands.—South.

The World.

We may despise the world, but we cannot do without it.—Baron Wenneberg.

Gorilla's Wonderful Strength.

A gorilla four feet six inches in height has the strength of four strong men. It can bend double a pair of 12-bore gun barrels in its paw.

Discretion Always Well.

Without discretion, people may be overlaid with unreasonable affection, and choked with too much nourishment.—Jeremy Collier.

The painter has been "made the goat" long enough

It is about time that property owners realized that the painter isn't to blame when a cheap painting job does not last. It isn't from choice that the painter uses cheap paint and varnish. But he has to use them if the owner insists on looking for price instead of quality.

Let the painter figure on good paint and varnish. They cost a little more by the gallon but very little more by the job. Labor is the big item and that's the same with a cheap paint as with good paint.

Good, honest paint and varnish like BREINIG BROTHERS' is an economy—whether they are for a porch chair or for your entire house. They are made to give lasting protection.

A Wish

"I HAVE TAKEN Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of Cardui and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard on us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work." This card fulfils her wish.

VERA

The recent rains have enabled most of the farmers in this section to finish their seeding; and now tobacco is occupying their attention. Several persons with trucks and car loads of the weed have passed (presumably) on their way to Lynchburg to be at the opening of the market on the 30th.

This "neck of the woods" was a highly favored spot on last Saturday afternoon when the big "Shenandoah" sailed megastically by in mid air, and was the wonder of all who saw it. It is the largest ship of its kind in the world. There were 40 men on board but were not discernible as they were too high. The big ship is supposed to reach its distination, Lakehurst, N. J., at 9:30 p. m.

Miss Margaret Lythgoe, of Tower Hill, was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Reynolds.

Miss Nettie Nutticombe who is attending school at Gladstone, spent Sunday with her home people.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson, Miss Helen Anderson and Miss Lillie Craddock all of Lynchburg, pent Sunday with the Kinneys.

Miss Margaret Brown of Danville, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. J. S. Kinney.

Alfred Nutticombe, who is working at Gladstone spent Sunday at home.

Jeff Kintey spent the past week in Norfolk as the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. A. Steffand.

We suppose the hunting season opens on November 1st, as we have seen no news to the contrary.

Birds seem to be plentiful this year also rabbits and squirrels.

We who are living under the sunny skies of Virginia find it hard to realize that our sister state, Kentucky has already been enveloped in a mantle of snow. "Count your blessings".

A. B. Thornhill returned to his work in Richmond Sunday, we are all very sorry to know that his wife continues very ill.

Miss Willie Bell is suffering very much from a sore hand. Hope it will soon be improved.

The "Peptomist-Club" members are very proud of the prizes they won at the Fair.

Mrs. J. H. Hammersley of Norwood, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. M. L. Garrett, has returned home.

Mrs. Eugene Budd, of Farmville, recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hammersley.

Miss Christine Garrett who has been ill for a week, is now improving.

The curiosity of the people, of our quiet community, was aroused last Saturday afternoon by the roaring of a large air ship sailing over our section. What will the future bring forth.

Think of it now 30th of October and some of our people are gathering green beans, corn and tomatoes from their gardens. Do you not think that our seasons are rapidly changing?

STONEWALL

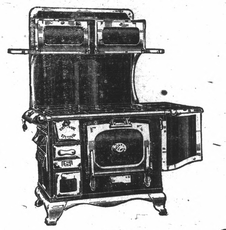
The Range Eternal

"Everlastingly Good"

Here's the Range You Will be Proud to Own

so beautiful in appearance, and because it is so easily kept new looking. Proud because its better cooking qualities enable every woman to demonstrate her real skill as a cook.



The Range Eternal

"EVERLASTINGLY GOOD"

Gives a lifetime of perfect kitchen service. Built of unbreakable malleable and steel. The Range Eternal is the finest achievement of two generations of range builders. It has 32 improvements that make it the most convenient and most efficient range you can own.

Resists Rust

The top is protected from rust by the famous Parker Process. Flues are lined with Eternametal—which never rusts, corrodes or burns out. 16 gallon reservoir is made of heavy, tinned copper.

Larger Cooking Top

The smoke pipe is concealed, yet no cooking surface lost. Large, strong tea shelves conveniently placed and handy for you to use.

"Seal Tight Oven"

A wonderful baker, because the oven door is insulated to hold all the heat inside. Thermometer in door ends guesswork about oven heat.

32 Features

Come in and see this range. Ask to see the 32 reasons why the range Eternal give you a lifetime of perfect kitchen service.

Special demonstration of this Range will be made at my store on Saturday November 3rd, all day. Come in and see this wonderful Range. Ladies especially invited.
